

1

There are two 3D printers available for use in the CAS Computing Center located on the lower level of Gambrell Hall. It costs .19 cents per gram to print. We use PLA material.

Ultimaker 3

prints high-resolution with dual extrusion and large build volume that print items up to (7 x 8 x 11 inches).

i Our newest edition offers precise printing with a calibration system to print out smooth detailed models up to (10 x 10 x 10).

Bambu Lab X1

2

There are a various colors to choose from.

★ Theater: used Ultimaker 3 to create hoofs to use as part of their costumes when performing animal farm.

★ Anthropology: primarily used the Ultimaker 3 to print bricks and other artifacts:.

★ Psychology: primarily, as well as other departments around the college are taking advantage of the new and improved Babu Lab X1 printer. Students are getting a scan of their brain printed.

